PROFILE

After obtaining a Ph.D. in Chemistry, I found a passion in web development and design. I am now a certified front-end developer, eager to learn and with strong creative and analytical skills.

Detail-oriented, I am open to working independently or as part of a team.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

- Understanding of the principles and practices of web development.
- Creation of responsive websites using HTML, CSS, Sass, Javascript, libraries such as React and Redux, and frameworks like Bootstrap.
- Familiarity with the use of Git, GitHub, NPM / Yarn, and Firebase.
- Web design using Figma and the use of other design tools such as Adobe Illustrator and Affinity Designer 2. Creation of SVG elements.
- Other skills: project management, working independently or in a team, working under pressure with strict deadlines, oral and written communication of results in meetings, reviews, conferences, and seminars, designing figures and posters (infographics).
